

university for years to come, this will be essential.

I am pleased to report that as we look at ways to become more e cient and focused in our mission and use of resources, there is much to be proud of in our current day-to-day operations. Our Seawolf athletes are competing well, we are in the third year of Innovate Awards that show the rewards of collaborations across colleges and programs and we are planning for the opening of the Alaska Airlines Center in August. Now, more than ever, amazing stories are being written every day at UAA.
