Beneficiary Designation Instructions and Information

Whom Can You Name as Beneficiary?

You can choose:

- A living person.
- An institution.
- Your estate.
- A trust.
- Any combination of these options.

Primary Versus Secondary Beneficiaries

- Primary beneficiaries are “first in line” to receive benefits in the event of your death. All primary beneficiaries share equally, unless otherwise noted on the form.
- Secondary beneficiaries only receive benefits in the event all primary beneficiaries die before or simultaneously with the member. All secondary beneficiaries share equally, unless otherwise noted on the form.

Information to Provide

Each time you complete a new form, it is important you provide the full legal name, address, relationship, date of birth and Social Security number of each individual person (or taxpayer identification number (TIN) of each institution) you designate. You must also designate whether the beneficiary is primary or secondary. Each piece of information helps ensure the named beneficiary is located and the proper person or institution receives the correct distribution.

Designating an Institution as Beneficiary

To name an institution (charity, church, etc.), please provide all of the information requested in Parts 2 and/or 3.

Designating a Trust as Beneficiary

To designate a trust as beneficiary, you should provide the name of the trust and the date the trust was created in the space provided for naming a beneficiary. Please also provide a copy of the Memorandum of Trust with your beneficiary designation.

Designating a Minor as Beneficiary

A minor can be named as your beneficiary. When no custodian has been named, and the amount the amount the minor will receive is more than $5,000, payment is guided by the Alaska Uniform Transfers to Minors Act. The Alaska Uniform Transfers to Minors Act AS 13.46.010-999 permits transfers of property and money to a person nominated as a custodian for a minor. The custodian must obtain a conservatorship prior to payment of the funds. This is true even if the custodian is the parent or legal guardian of the minor.

Naming Additional Beneficiaries

If you need to name more beneficiaries than space allows on this form, use an Additional Beneficiary Designation page. This page must be received with your completed Beneficiary Designation form to be valid. You can download an additional page at Alaska.gov/drb or contact the Division to receive one by mail.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

If you are married, your spouse is automatically your 100% primary beneficiary unless they consent to another beneficiary. Your spouse's written consent may be waived if:

- You were not married to your spouse during any part of your PERS or TRS employment;
- You have been married for less than 2 years and you have established that you and your spouse are not living together; or
- Your spouse cannot be located.

Your spouse may waive entitlement to benefits by completing and signing the Spousal Waiver of Death Benefits form (gen054) located on the Division of Retirement and Benefits website at Alaska.gov/drb.

Each time you complete a beneficiary form, it cancels all prior beneficiary designations with the Division for these death benefits. Your designations do not become effective until this form is signed and received in the Division office. This beneficiary form will not update any life insurance beneficiaries you may have.
