

November 28, 2018

Thank you for meeting with us

A big thank you to everyone who could make time to visit with the UA Land team this week.

and keep everyone in the loop, especially those who could not attend. We tried to reach as many people as possible and are committed to hearing from everyone as we move forward.

We started our visit at Mountain Market on Monday morning with about 20 people stopping by to chat. We heard are looking into having quarterly visits to Haines. We also understand the

< D